

Chas. T. Bawlin
P.O. A.S.F.

Audenarde Belgium
Nov. 11/1918

“I WAS THERE”

WITH THE YANKS ON THE WESTERN FRONT 1917-1919

BY
C. LEROY BALDRIDGE
PVT. A. E. F.

TOGETHER WITH VERSES BY HILMAR R. BAUKHAGE
PVT. A. E. F.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS NEW YORK AND LONDON
The Knickerbocker Press 1919

□ 527 B2

COPYRIGHT, 1919
BY
C. LEROY BALDRIDGE

Nov - 4 1919

Price $3.00 net

©CL536416

TO OUR MOTHERS

Ours the Great Adventure, Yours the pain to bear, Ours the golden service stripes, Yours the marks of care.

If all the Great Adventure
The old Earth ever knew,
Was ours and in this little book
'Twould still belong to you!

These Sketches

were made during a year's service as a camion driver with the French army in the Chemin-des-Dames sector and a year's service with the A.E.F. as an infantry private on special duty with "The Stars and Stripes," the official A.E.F. newspaper. Most of them were drawn at odd minutes during the French push of 1917 near Fort Malmaison, at loading parks and along the roadside while on truck convoy, and while on special permission to draw and paint with the French army given me by the Grand Quartier Général during the time I was stationed at Soissons. The rest were drawn on American fronts from the Argonne to Belgium as my duties took me from one offensive to another.

It has been a keen regret to me that my artistic skill has been so unequal to these opportunities. The sketches do not sufficiently show war for the stupid horror I know it to be.

I hope, however, they may serve as a record of doughboy types, of the people he lived with in France, with whom he suffered and by whose side he fought.

Many appeared first in "The Stars and Stripes," "Leslie's Weekly," and "Scribner's Magazine," through the courtesy of whose editors I am now enabled to reprint them.

C. K. Roy Baldridge Private, Am. E. F.

June 1919

I WAS THERE

Sunny
France

Warming up the "corned willy" over "corned heat" (solidified alcohol)

Rain overhead and mud underfoot

Baldio's Near Montfaucon 18

The Lank

C. L. R. Baldridge
Pvt A.E.T. 19

Fighting Trim

C. L. Roy Baldridge

Seicheprey.
America's old home sector
-first tendencies entirely under their own command

Seicheprey—
America's old home sector.

C. L. Roy Baldridge April '19

THE LINE

Form a line!

Get in line!

From the time that I enlisted And since Jerry armististed I've been standing, kidding, cussing, I've been waiting, fuming, fussing,
In a line.

I have stood in line in mud and slime and sleet,
With the dirty water oozing from my feet,
I have soaked and slid and slipped,
While my tacky slicker dripped,
And I wondered what they'd hand me out to eat.

Get in line!

For supplies and for inspections,
With the dust in four directions,
For a chance to scrub the dirt off, In the winter with my shirt off,
In a line.

I have sweated in an August training camp,
That would make a prohibition town look damp, Underneath my dinky cap
While the sun burned off my map
And I waited for some gold-fish (and a cramp!).

Get in line!

For rice, pay-day, pills, and ration,
For corned-willy, army fashion,
In Hoboken, in the trenches,
In a station with the Frenchies,
In a line.

I've been standing, freezing, sweating, Pushing, shoving, wheezing, fretting,
And I won't be soon forgetting Though I don't say I'm regretting That I stood there, with my buddies, In a line.

Pt. C. Le Roy Baldridge
A. E. F. 78

The lids we wear =

He used to hunt rabbits in Kentucky

Ch Roy Balding

—
The job that's never ended
—

Cleaning up for inspection

First time in two weeks!

C. E. K. 1897 Dalby

Montmorency

The letter from home reading

The Ration Detail

a job which no one relishes. Each day, the other fellows' artillery tries to lay down a fire which will keep these boys from getting back. They travel to where their supply company has dumped the food from mule carts - the point nearest front where creaking wheels may go. The man in the center is carrying a string of French loaves, the round, black variety, common before we got our own bakeries started.

Baldridge, 1918

The Headquarters Company of the Reserve Mallet taking its bath at Charing Farm. The tub is a tin-lined cigarette box used by the 4th M. C. A. Water is heated in the old farm fire-place.

“PREPARE FOR ACTION”

I ran into Johnny Redlegs
A-sitting on his bus,
And I asked him why the devil
He dropped half his shells on us.
He just smiles and puffs his corn-cob,
As peaceful as a Persian,
And, “Buddy,” says he, “you can’t blame me, You gotta blame dispersion.”

I says to Johnny Redlegs, “If I didn’t have nine lives Your barrage would have got me With those lousy seventy-fives.”
He grins and puffs his corn-cob,
And then he winks, reflective,
And, “Buddy,” says he, “you can’t blame me
If you pass your damn objective.”

I says to Johnny Redlegs
(Just kidding him, you know), “The trouble with your popgun is She pops too gol-darned slow.” Then Redlegs drops his corn-cob
And spits on both his han’s, And, “Buddy,” says he, “you can kid with me
And the whole damned Field Artilleree, But there’ll be a dud where you used to be If you kid my swasont-cans!”

"I know a girl at home who looks just like you 6 June

"Johnny Redlegs" guardian of the "soixanti-quatre" (the famous French "75")

and the doughboy who tries to keep just the right distance from the covering barrage fire

C. E. Roy Baldwin
France

The Bugs"-
Two men, French style tanks

—
An Indian
M. P.
—

"A Chance to get " even"
—

A Survival of the old regular army

C Le Roy Baldridge

(Lt Roy Baldridge)

—
Among the first sent across
—

They served with the French in '17

Reading their shirts

Her boy too -

American and French field artillery gun crews camped together in a wood near Chassemy. The canvas overhead keeps the fire from being observed by aeroplanes at night.

Using a shell-shocked tree for a telegraph pole.

The linesman at the front

Same old job with just a couple percent more risk than usual

St. Mihiel 1918

Dumb Beasts

In the Missouri draft

Wagon train trucks = "Maud" and "Mud"

Former refugee
- now mascot
and the only man in the outfit who likes mowing meat

Yanks with French Type of Anti-Aircraft

C. Henry Ballbridge

The Aeroplane Fight

C. L. Roy Balbridge 1917

RELIEF

z-z-z-z-z-Z-Z-Z-Z-e-e-e-E-E - - - - - b Boom!

There's another!

God, this pack is heavy.
Glad I pinched the extra willy, Guess I'll need it.
And the sweater, too,
out there.

-z-z-z-z-z-z-z-Z-Z-Z-Z-E-E-E-EEEEEE- - b Boom!

There's another!

Jesse! that was a close one.
Wonder if.....good Christ! Where's Charlie?
Got him clean. God curse those Jerries!
I'll get even, — p'raps —
out there.

z-z-z-z-z-z-z-Z-Z-Z-E-E-E-E-e-e- - - - - b Boom!

There's another!

Over!

Well, if one has my name on it Then the guv'ment pays ten thousand.
What's the use? I couldn't spend it.
Leastways not — out there.

z-z-z-z-z-z-z-Z-Z-Z-Z-e-e-e-e-E-E-E-E- - - b Boom!

There's another.

Where'd I put that plug of Climax?
Oh, I s'pose somebody swiped it.
Gee, I never thought that Charlie...
Glad I ain't out on the wire.
This damn trench is dark — ouch! Damn it, Wait a minute.... Hell, I'm coming,
I can't run in this equipment.
What the hell's the rush to get — out there?

The Relief

Coming up to the front lines through the communication trenches, which extend a kilometer or so. On these occasions little love is lost on "beautiful moon-light nights"

C. L. Roy Baldridge 1918

Feb 10, 1907, Baldridge

The roofs of Vuux after a few minutes of hard fanning lifted -

"The Germans have gone!"

Baldrige
St. Michael

The shell hole Central

On Guard

The non-combatant—

The family with whom I lived in Soissons

In 1870
Grandpère was taken as a prisoner to Coblenz

Madam Framary who sewed on my buttons and who transformed miserable French army rations into marvelous dishes

Erasmé, the youngest son who starts his three years of compulsory training in the fall 1919

The eldest son After his three years of training
he was called to war.
He has never come back.

Cap Roy, Baldudgè - Soissons - 1918

Crossley Baldie's
France 1917

awaiting the signal to attack. The sergeant is ready to blow the whistle for his squad to follow him out through a path in the barbed wire. In another minute they will advance close behind the bursting shells of a heavy barrage which, lifting, will leave them free to face with German machine guns.

"American Field Service" drivers at Longport/1917

Noyon 1918

The Paris Bus
 many recruits from the Placs de l'Opéra - used for transporting troops, horses, and fresh meat to the front

FATIGUE

You can see 'em in the movies,
With the sunlight on their guns,
You can read in all the papers Of the charge that licked the Huns, You can read of "khaki heroes"
And of "gleaming bayonet," But there's one thing that the writers And the artist all forget:

That's me!
On K. P.
In my suit of denim blue I am thinking — not of you — But the places where I'd like the top to be!

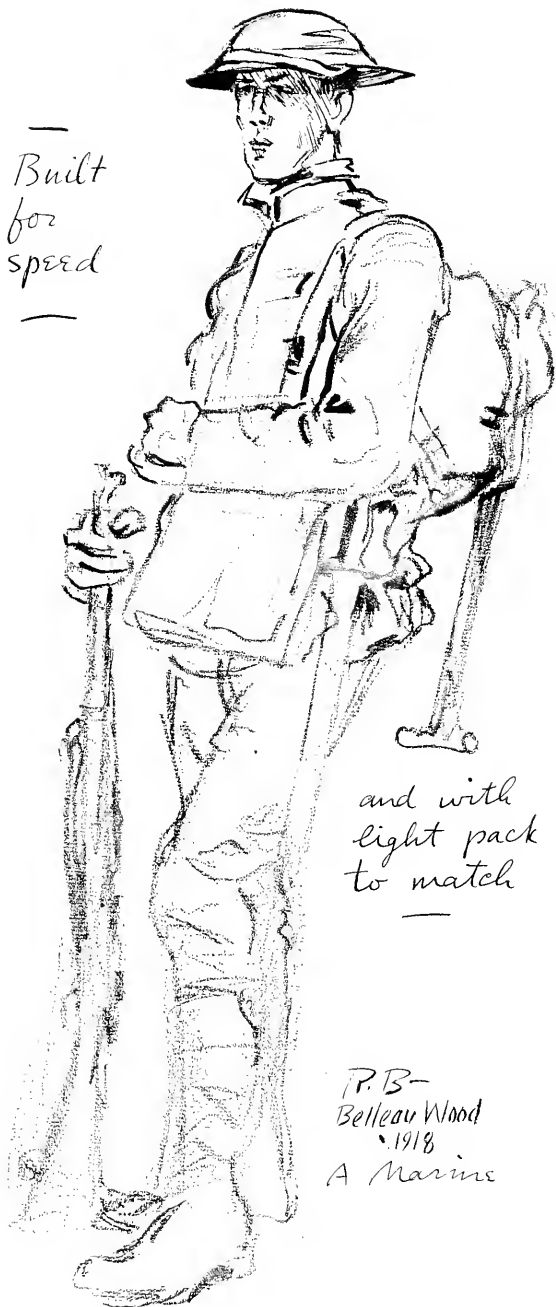

On the posters in the windows,
In the monthly magazine,
Are the boys in leather leggings Such as Pershing's never seen; Oh, they love to paint 'em pretty,
All dressed up and fit to kiss, — Ain't it funny there's a picture That they always seem to miss?

Bless me soul, Loading coal!
In my little shimmy-shirt, Eyes and mouth full up with dirt — (In the next war I'll be living at the Pole.)

Chas Roy Baldridge

—
Built for speed
—

and with light pack to match
—

P.B.
Belleau Wood 1918 A Marine

Bulldridge
Paris 1919

"Steady, buddy!"

Never too far gone for a smoke

But he wears the Legion of Honor and the "croix de guerre" —

The "Territorial" - the name given French people between the ages of 34 and 40

C. R. Baldry Vailly - 1917

In an abri waiting for the "Gothas" (big German planes) to go home

The veteran of the Spanish-American war tells 'em how it ought to be done

R. Cufbery

Sketched at the Lafayette Escadrille field near Longpont as the aviator was getting into his "union suit" preparatory to flying in a Chemin-des-Dames engagement

C. L. R. Baldridge

Base port Stevedores

A. V. Brown Haying Team moving toward Pleasant Hill, and Prairie Schooner in a country made, about 1900.

C. Le Roy Baldridge

The end of his service

Veterans of the Marne

C. R. Baldridge Put Inf

POILU

When we left the transport Back in St. Nazaire, Second thing you asked us, — “Quand finit la guerre?”
Didn't know your lingo You weren't hard to get,
Peace was what you wanted —
And a cigarette.

Then up in the trenches
It was just the same, “When's it going to finish?”
Didn't seem quite game.
Then we saw you strafing, Saw we had you wrong, Wondered how you stood it Four years long.

Drank your sour pinard, Shared what smokes we had,
Got to know you better, Found you weren't so bad,
Four years in the trenches!
(One's enough, I'll say) How the hell'd you do it On five sous a day?

Chemin des Dames 27

Pot. C. Le Roy, Bataillon

C. R. Baldridge
France

American being taught by Frenchman to drive truck so that the latter may return to his farm.

Moving up over a corduroy road Rastelli laid down by a pine (engineer) regiment in war-wasted land. The piece of wall on the right is all that remains of a Greek village of five hundred inhabitants.

بن عبد الله بن عبد الله Arabian Knight

ابراهيم بن ابراهيم

Between drives he works on the railroad

الكبير بن عبد الله

On other days he rides a camel in Algeria

Baldridge

1917

Senegalese types volunteers used for the attack and for labor on roads

C. Le Roy Baldridge
vaily 1917

The announer
-pou priest who marches with the troops

Of the youngest class

C. LeRoi Baldridge 1917
Moulins Lafjoux

2 Jan 1918 at the class 1918

—
He handles a big naval gun mounted on rail-road cars near Soissons
—

Baldrige
1918

Un canonnier marin sur le front

In 1870 he drew a team not a man

French "Corvée" Laborers.

Too old to serve in the active army and so assigned to the more unromantic, uninteresting but vital work of loading camions, tending horses, or building and repairing roads back of the lines. It has been said that the first battle of Verdun was won by the camion service. This is the kind of man who made that victory possible.

Toul sector days - Waiting for something to happen -

An - grand blessé

A Medal for Valor

*A wounded Chasseurs
and
'Fritz' who has the next cot.
They get the same treatment and neither seems to mind the proximity*

Meaux

Baldwin 17

An American Ambulance at a poste de secours (first aid station) Ostel - 1917

An old trench in the Argonne near Montfaucon

Chas. F. Jacoby, Art. 14

THAT QUIET SECTOR

Four hours off — two hours on —
And not a thing to do but think,
And watch the mud and twisted wire
And never let your peepers blink.

Two hours on — four hours off —
The dug-out's slimy as the trench;
It stinks of leather, men, and smoke,— You wake up dopey from the stench.

Four hours off — two hours on — Back on the same old trick again,
The same old noth'n' to do at all From yesterday till God knows when.
On post or not it's just the same,
The waiting is what gets your goat
And makes you want to chuck the game Or risk a trench-knife in your throat.

Two hours on — four hours off —
I s'pose our job is not so hard,— I s'pose sometime we're going to quit —

.

The ghosts we leave — do they stand guard?

P. L. C. Le Roy, Baldrige, France

The water wagon filled with red-hot coffee going to the ration dump via shell fire and not losing any time about it - (Outside Belleau wood - June '18

He's been on every front from Chateau-Thierry
to the Rhine

CHAS. Baldwin

Coblenz - 1919

After the former street cleaning up old quarry used by Fritz as a stables - Chemin des Dames

C. Coz Baldridge

"Wagon Soldiers" (nickname for artillerymen)

Made in America

"Marraines" (Godmothers)

who kept their poilu godsons at the front in good cheer with letters and packages from home, and who took their Yank cousins to their hearts in the same kindly spirit in Paris and the provinces

A type to match the ideal of every man who looks

Baldridge 1917

"Papa Perrin" Soissons
1917

No one knows where the poilu slang word "Pincard" came from, but everyone knows what it means. It's half way between water and red wine, with the kick mostly in the taste. It is served as an army ration. The poilu's canteen is always full of it.

"We aint no thin red 'eroes,
"Nor we aren't no blackguards too," —

One of the Agent-de-Ville = M. P. teams of Paris patrolling the boulevard. They have authority over both Hank and poilu.

- C. Le Roy Baldridge -
Paris 1419

Belgian Types

Le Roy Baldrige

The Tommy nontdiddler 1918

C. R. Ballbridge
France 1918

In the month of July

Caught by a star shell at a listening post, and attempting to "freeze" like a rabbit with the hunter upon him, to look as much like a lump of mud as possible until the glare dies down.

C. Le Roy Baldridge
March 17

Arriving transferred in the morning morning of Port St. Vincent

French Colonial Types

White, black,
and halfway.

From Algeria

A Zouave

From Morocco

"Kamarad!"

Not Fulbright

The Interpreter

"P.G.s" (prisonniers de la guerre) who are keeping in physical trim by lumber work in a forest where once the kings of France took their morning walks

— Baldridge Croix St Owen

1918

A Yank going on leave having a midnight cup of "vin rouge" in a compartment of a Permissionnaire's

Celebrity in disguise en route - Nov/1918

Train - with a soixante-quatre gunner, a sailor from a submarine, a Chasseurs, an aviation sergeant, and several infantrymen. For the next ten days of "permission" these men can forget war.

The barber shop quartette on the trip home - (no ocean rules about noise this time).

Balding
Balding
Balding
Balding

*Coming Out!
& dirty, tired and grinning!*

Baldridge

Chateau Thierry June - 1918

MAIL !
Brought up to the front by the ration detail

Balbridge

Forty feet underground in an old stone quarry formerly used by the Spaniards as canchales.

Near Fort Malabon.

Ch. 12, [Landlady]

This is the cellar of her home. The house above no longer exists. For her living she washes clothes for the soldiers. Her daughter with two young children is a prisoner in Billy's room. A blind grandchild lives in the cave.

"Lui"

Poulet

This one has won three army citations

"la soupe"

turison dog to carry messages

Red Cross dog

Jack-a Yank volunteer

French dogs loaned by private families and trained by the army for use as Red Cross aids, sentinels, and message carriers.
Intelligence the only qualification - any breed goes

Kénaro

Saïd

Two dogs who worked together at Verdun

Picard

Sultane

Marraine

Filon

"Mort pour la Patrie"

The O.D. Circuit

"Pull the shades down Mary Ann"

A love song from The East -

Our own jazz band

"Coming out" after "The Washington Birthday Raid" Chemin des Dames - 1918 - origin 23 24.0.

An African Mohomedan, An Indo-Chinese Annamite and a prisoner who all crack rocks nine hours a day for the roads of France

Ch. Roy Baldridge

Cl. Roy-Baldric
France 1918

French Colonials from Northern Africa used in shock troops

First regiment Zouave

Chester Baldridge
France 18

SALVAGE

I'll be stepping wide in these russet shoes!
Leather putts beside, honest I can't lose!
Guess the guy that had 'em left 'em in a hurry!
What the hell, he's S. O. L.
I should worry.

"That's my second razor!"
"Then gimme the blades."
"Whatcha got there, Buddy?"
"Pair of tailor-mades!"

I'll be walking on air! Yes. . . they was the top's!
He won't need 'em out there — if a big one drops.

"Going to keep that sweater?"
"No, look at the dirt."
"Put that on you, Buddy,
"You'll have to read your shirt!"

If I get that leave I can use 'em to dance.
Well, I should grieve, —he had his chance.

"Nothing doing! Beat it!"
"Saw that luger first!"
"Ten francs says I want it."
"Done. I'll cure this thirst."

Brand-new russet shoes, I'll be stepping high!
Someone's got to lose, glad I ain't the guy.
If I'm going to use 'em, guess I'll have to hurry, The next H. E. may be meant for me —
I should worry!

The Gurnee's Cottage

He lost an arm, in 1917 he lost a son and everything he owns

C. G. R. B. B. B. B. B.
France / 18

Lafayette Escadulle Men -

Marius - who helps keep the big planes in order

Pilot

Loupont
France
A/Ov-17

Observer

C. R. y Baldridge

Making rooms from brushwood at Antibes for use on army roads.

The Signal Corps

Rt. Col. Roy Balbridge
France

France Aug. 1918

C. W. Roy Ballou & Co. Pvt. Inf.

The gold star

Both under Arms

The "pepins" of the '89 class
and the
"Marie-Louise"
of the last call

Clifford Dahlridge Sisters France '17

Café group of poilus listening to an American popular song for the first time, sung by Yanks of The American Field Service

Home

Some of the first ones

C. R. P. Balbridge
France 1918

C. Roy Baldridge

Feet

R.B.

Vaux - the town American artillery blew off, the map together with the German inhabitants)

Dugouts built for German officers near Soissons used by them in 1915.
Decked out with cement and mosaic floors,
paper on the walls, tile roofs and stained glass windows.
Used by our troops in 1918

Lt. Roy Belcher, 1918

Baldrige
Am Hospital No 5

The American Trained Nurse

What one man is fighting for

C LeRoy Baldridge
Soissons - 1917

Ch Roy Baldridge • A.E.F.

"Once upon a time."

Before leaving France 750,000 doughboys contributed enough to support 3,444 French war orphans for one year, and the "Stars and Stripes" newspaper left nearly three million francs toward their education.

Annamites

French colonial troops from Indo-China

(Blackened teeth as an aid to health and beauty)

An Oriental pipe and a French briguette to light it with

These paid colonials were used as attacking troops, as labourers on roads and as drivers of light trucks

C. Sergeant Tam
Ligny - Sur - Arce

(LeRoy Boldridge
France • 1916)

The "white wing" of the French front—

—
but when he puts on his heavy marching order it means there's an attack coming

A king in his own country

P. Aldrich

EQUIPMENT C

The Loot is getting wabbly, With his dinky little pack, —
He can hear the sergeant cussing
But he doesn't dare look back.

But we ain't saying nothing Since we got the order "route," Too dog-dead for even wond'ring If we'll ever hear "fall out."

My damn rifle and my helmet Keep on getting in the way,
And my brains are numb and dopey Try'n' to cuss and try'n' to pray.

My throat's as dry as sawdust
And my right arm's gone to sleep,
And the pack-strap on my shoulder Cuts a slit two inches deep.

I just lift one foot and shove it And it hits most any place, Then I lift and shove the other T'keep from falling on my face.

If the guide should change the cadence I'll be damned if I could stop;
If you pushed me with a feather — Well, I'd just curl up and drop.

And I know damn well there's stragglers That'll ride up on a truck — Guess if you ain't born a quitter, You're just simply outa luck.

I suppose we'll keep on going -- Huh? The Skipper's faced about?
Halt! . . . I'm dreaming. . . in the daisies. . .
You don't need. . . to say. . . "fall out!"

Pot. C. LeRoy Baldridge

For some of us
The war will never end.

Cher, Bailly

Soissons - 1917

In an old Roman cellar two floors underground where civilians went during air raids as bombing planes passed over on their way to Compiègne, Paris, and interior cities. This cave was considered absolutely safe, but in October 1918 was completely demolished by one "155" shell.

Mess and distribution of mail at the "iron-corn" school for the M. T. C. at Longport

Chas. Baldridge 1917

Fair from Bromelway - S. B. O. - Christmas 1917 at a given day

Dressing a gas burn case

Mission Ambulance Company is - Hospital for the treatment of Chinese

Ch. B. B. B.

Americans quartered in the old abbey St John de Vime of Soissons in the spring of '18

Balbridge

All the Same Family Henri, who tends sheep with his assistant,

Zero

She teaches us French

Jean, who comes around at mess time for "confiture Americaine", and who has learned how to say "chewing gum" and "cigarette."

And Pierre picked the spuds

Their last war

Baldridge-
Chateau Thierry - France 1918

The town of Cuffies (sur Aisne) held by the Germans till 1916.
When the old inhabitants began moving back in; they were assisted in re-establishing their life there by the American Red Cross

The site of the House of Madame Crépin where the Red Cross set up a barrack cottage for her.

Reims
Nov 18
Baldridge

The glory of Reims

W. L. Baldridge
Reims - Nov. 1918

Cut off from rations for three days in the wood - with one can of tomatoes for both food and drink -

A sixteen year old volunteer

12, Balding -

“MADELON”

It seemed years since I had seen one, — Years of hiking, sweat and blood, Didn't think there was a clean one In these miles of men and mud.

Well, I stood there, laughing, drinking, Kidding her in bon fransay
But the things that I was thinking Were a thousand miles away.

Sewed my stripe on like a mother, Gee! She was a pretty kid. . . .
But I left her like a brother, — Shake her hand was all I did.

Then I says: “Vous, all right, cherry —”
And my throat stuck, and it hurt. . . .
And I showed her what I carry In the pocket of my shirt.

"Maison Courtois" Paris

Prof. R. P. Roy, Zurich, 1908 HEF

A second floor billet

Outpost at Hirschbach Germany

Madelon of the village, who washed our clothes - and who still has some of those we had to leave when we we were pulled out of the sector in the middle of the night

C. Le Roy Baldrige

Neat but not gandy

As we came home - on the transport —

C. Le Roy Baldridge Adrian 1919

Troops coming home from Marselles go by way of Africa and stop to work at Adrian Here the doughboy meets the French Arab soldier with whom he fought side by side at Sousse -

Officer Hommes 4

France 1919
Ready to go Home

Reading the Draft Covenant for The League of Nations-Paris: —

For C. H. R. P. L. L. L. L. L.
Feb 14 1919

General Colonial Secretary - The President - Bliss House Lansing M. Clemenceau Mr. Balfour

Blue denim for the trip home

S. S. Canada 1919

Baldridge
Dec. 1918

Outpost at Molsberg, Germany, in ancient castle which stands just on the edge of the American occupied area and the Neutral zone.

NOVEMBER ELEVENTH

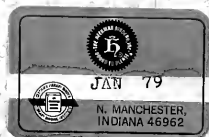

We stood up and we didn't say a word,
It felt just like when you have dropped your pack
After a hike, and straightened out your back And seem just twice as light as any bird.

We stood up straight and, God! but it was good!
When you have crouched like that for months, to stand Straight up and look right out toward No-Man's-Land And feel the way you never thought you could.

We saw the trenches on the other side And Jerry, too, not making any fuss, But prob'ly stupid-happy, just like us.
Nobody shot and no one tried to hide.

If you had listened then I guess you'd heard A sort of sigh from everybody there,
But all we did was stand and stare and stare, Just stare and stand and never say a word.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

0 005 822 420 0